Project Description

Al Ahsaa Economic City (ALEC) is 1 of the 6 Economic Cities sanctioned by the King of Saudi Arabia to diversify the Kingdom's economic base. The city will be based around oil and gas energy production occupying 168km² of land on the north-east coast of Saudi Arabia facing the Arabian Gulf.

The original site (Site A) was abandoned after work on Stage 1 was completed when a number of problematic issues surfaced. An alternative site was subsequently chosen as a replacement site to which the final Master Plan was based on.

Progress Status

Final Master Plan had been submitted and is now awaiting approval from the client and the Saudi Arabian Government.
